

SANGHAMITRA SCHOOL

Farewell

Farewell is not just a goodbye; it is a celebration of the beautiful memories created over the years and the excitement of stepping into a bright new journey. It is a day filled with joy, laughter, and heartfelt moments, marking both an end and a new beginning.

To honour this special occasion, a Farewell Ceremony was organized for the parents and students of Class X (Batch 2024-2025) on Sunday, February 9th. The atmosphere was vibrant, with students arriving in their attire the theme being - FORMAL ELEGANCE, truly a sight to behold. Their excitement and enthusiasm reflected the journey they have undertaken and the aspirations they now carry forward.

The campus buzzed with energy as parents and students bonded, reminisced, and appreciated the wonderful years spent together. It was a nostalgic moment to see how, years ago, these students had entered the school as little children, holding their parents' hands—now standing tall, poised, and ready to embrace the next chapter of their lives.

After a delightful bonding session over a sumptuous lunch, it was time for students and parents to gather in the auditorium for an afternoon of sharing cherished memories, celebrating milestones, and looking forward to the future with hope and excitement.

The event commenced with a warm welcome from our hosts, Ms. Nagavalli and Ms. Pavani, teachers from the Nursery section, who set the tone for the afternoon filled with heartfelt emotions and nostalgia.

The program officially began with the lighting of the lamp by the Student Council, our respected Ma'am, Principal, and Ms. Vijaya—a tradition deeply rooted in meaning and significance. The lamp, a symbol of knowledge, wisdom, and enlightenment, represents the bright futures that await our students as they step into a new phase of their lives.

As the lamp glowed with its divine light, the atmosphere was further enriched by a soulful rendition of Ganesh Vandana by our talented Class X student, Ms. Laasya. Her melodious voice filled the auditorium, invoking blessings and positivity for the journey ahead.

The event continued with an inspiring welcome address by our Principal, Ms. K. Swarupa Rani. In her speech, she appreciated the students for their hard work, resilience, and growth into remarkable individuals. She encouraged them to embrace new opportunities with confidence, reminding them that learning is a lifelong journey and that challenges are simply stepping stones to success. She urged the students to hold onto the values instilled in them, believe in themselves, and pursue their dreams fearlessly.

Following this, the Class X choir took the stage, entertaining the audience with a beautiful medley. This performance was not just a musical delight but also a tribute to the memories they had created together as a choir over the years.

The next highlight of the afternoon was a wonderful display of keyboard skills by Soma Aditya from Class X. His performance mesmerized the audience, who thoroughly enjoyed the music and appreciated his talent.

Next, it was time for a nostalgic journey down memory lane, brought to life through the students' favourite medium—electronic media. Our talented Computer Department curated a special PowerPoint presentation that beautifully captured the students' incredible journey from LKG to Class X. The audience was deeply moved as they watched precious memories unfold, reminiscing about the milestones, friendships, and experiences that shaped their school years. Laughter smiles, and a few tears of joy filled the room as everyone cherished these unforgettable moments.

Following this emotional tribute, it was time to focus on the upcoming Class X Board Exams. Ms. Sunanda and Ms. Arundathi took the stage to share important exam guidelines with students and parents. They emphasized key instructions and best practices to help students stay organized, remain stress-free, and confidently navigate their board exams. Parents and students were encouraged to follow these guidelines diligently to ensure a smooth and successful exam experience.

The event continued with a spectacular round of entertainment—by the students, for the students, and of the students!

The Class X students took center stage, dazzling the audience with their incredible dance performances. Their energy, coordination, and passion made for a truly memorable showcase of their talent and creativity.

For the grand finale, all sections came together for a heartfelt tribute to their first and greatest teachers—their parents. Students expressed their love, gratitude, and appreciation for their parents, making it an emotional and touching moment for everyone present. The auditorium echoed with thunderous applause, as parents and teachers were moved by the sincerity and affection behind the tribute.

As the program drew to a close, it was time for parental feedback. Several parents came forward to express their heartfelt appreciation. They commended the school management for fostering a strong bond with parents and including them in the celebrations. They also thanked the Principal, teachers, and staff for their meticulous planning, warmth, and efforts in making the event truly special. Parents were overjoyed and proud that their children were part of such a nurturing and inspiring school.

As the event approached its conclusion, Arundathi Ma'am took the stage to deliver a heartfelt address. She expressed deep gratitude to the parents for entrusting their children to the school's care, acknowledging the strong partnership between parents and educators in shaping the students' futures. She reminded everyone that while academic success is important, true education lies in shaping good human beings. She encouraged parents to look beyond just marks and focus on their child's overall growth—character, values, and life skills—which would truly help them succeed in life.

Following this, it was time for the Student Council to express their gratitude on behalf of the entire Class X batch. Representing all their classmates, the Student Council and NCC students came forward to thank their beloved alma mater. With deep respect and emotion, they expressed their appreciation to Principal Ma'am, their teachers, and mentors for guiding them through this incredible journey. They spoke of the unforgettable memories, the values instilled, and the life lessons learned, promising to carry forward the school's teachings and make their institution proud wherever they go.

As all good things must come to an end, it was time to conclude this wonderful event and express gratitude to the many hands that worked tirelessly to make it a grand success.

Our Headmistress, Ms. Jyothi, took the stage to propose the Vote of Thanks. She began by expressing her deep appreciation to Mam, Principal for their unwavering support and guidance in making the event so special. She sincerely thanked the parents for taking the time to attend and be part of this important milestone in their children's lives.

She extended a special note of gratitude to Ms. Sunanda, as well as the Art & Craft, Computer, and Music departments, for their hard work and creativity in bringing the event to life. Finally, she applauded the entire staff for their excellent teamwork and collaboration, which ensured the program's smooth execution and success.

With hearts full of memories and best wishes, the event came to a fitting close with the National Anthem, followed by warm blessings and encouragement for the Class X students as they step into a new and promising future.

The event was a beautiful blend of emotions, gratitude, and hope, creating lasting memories for all. We wish our dear students the very best as they step into a bright and promising future!
